HONGKONG OCTOBER 1ST, 1913

EVIDENTLY it was not without some inkling of the discussions which were in progress among the bankers of the International Consortium interested in China loans that The Times on September 25th published its rather startling article in advocacy of a change in the British Government's financial policy in China. Reuter informed us that The Times had emphasised the necessity for the British Government to reconsider its financial policy in China so as to prevent the unfair handicapping of British industry by foreign rivals. While it recommended the continuance of the Quintuple Group for the larger non-commercial loans, as a useful supervisory organisation, it demanded a change of policy with this view to restoring to British firms liberty of action to participate in sound industrial and railway enterprises and the releasing of the Foreign Office from any obligation to support the members of the Quintuple Group. Two days after this appeared the announcement is made in Peking by the bankers interested in the various loan groups that the agreements have been dissolved, "except a section of the Quintuple agreement relating to State loans for administrative purposes," thus leaving the Governments concerned free to support any applications for concessions in China. We do not know what will be thought and said by the investing public who subscribed to these loans on the faith of the agreements which have now been whittled down to so material an extent; but they would seem to have a legitimate grievance against their respective Governments, for it is extremely doubtful whether the flotation of the twenty-five million loan would have proved as successful as it did, had it not been for the existence of these agreements. Already the Chinese Government is said to be sounding the bankers at Peking with a view to a further loan. The time seems very inopportune for floating further loans for administrative purposes in China, for the Chinese Government has done nothing so far to inspire public confidence in the financial future of China; on the contrary, it has done much to create grave mistrust by showing a reluctance to give the necessary powers to the foreign experts who were engaged to reorganise the Salt Gabelle, and by the attitude of the Government towards the Foreign Advisors generally. It will not be disputed that "the potential resources of the Chinese are great enough to justify a further extension of their liabilities if only efficient internal government can be assured." The "if" is an important one. We do not wish to be unduly pessimistic, but we confess that we see at present few signs which give early hope of what can be considered "efficient internal government" in China. Yet China seems to be over-run with agents of foreign financial houses ready to supply capital for sound industrial and railway enterprises, and the British Government has evidently been persuaded that unless it departs from its policy of exclusive support, British enterprise in China is bound to be seriously handicapped in the scramble. We are inclined to believe the decision to which the bankers of the International Consortium have been driven is one not likely to prove to the best interests of China, but since the decision accords with the known desire of the Chinese Government, China will be in no position to complain of any ill-consequences that may ensue. We take it that the decision means that the respective Governments are now prepared to support their nationals in any legitimate enterprises they may undertake in any part of China, and we shall doubtless soon be hearing a great deal more of the new railway enterprises which seem to have been held up as a consequence of the policy hitherto followed by the Governments.

ENTRIES FOR THE FIFTH GYMNASIA CLUSE THIS EVENING.

Mr. R. Aylmer Coates, formerly of Macao, has been appointed instructor at the Peers' School in Tokyo.

It is announced that Mr. Karl Lindemann, of Hankow, has been admitted a partner in the firm of Melchers & Co.

Eight Cantonese, who are loyal to the Manchus, have been arrested in Peking and handed over to the court-martial on the charge of conspiring against the Republic. —Ostasiatischer Lloyd.

At the Magistracy yesterday, before Mr. Hazeland, a Chinese who was charged with stealing a pair of partridges told the Magistrate that he picked them up at West Point. He was fined $10.

Mr. F. A. Hazeland imposed a fine of $100, or in the alternative two months' imprisonment, at the Magistracy yesterday on a Chinese for stowing away on the s.s. Yat Shing, bound for Hongkong from Singapore.

Miss Maul Allan's tour with the famous Chrenavsky troupe of instrumentalists includes a visit to Hongkong, but the agent in his advice to us has omitted to insert the date of the visit, which is left blank in his communication.

On Monday, September 22nd, at 3.30 p.m., the steamer Fuenyong sighted a large iron buoy in Lat. 16.84 N. 118.55 E. The steamer was stopped and the buoy taken on board and carried on to Manila. The authorities there said it did not belong to the Philippines Islands, so it has been brought on to Hongkong.

The members of the Young Women's Christian Association are holding a social in their new rooms this evening. It will be a farewell reception for Mrs. Kydd, who has been the Hon. Secretary for some months past. The new rooms are at 19, Queen's Road, over Ah Ling's, and the entrance is on the side street.

Fines ranging from $50 to $200 have been imposed on about fifteen newspapers and news agencies in Tokyo for publishing reports of the assassination of the late Mr. Abe, when they were expressly forbidden to do so. These fines are imposed, it seems, under a police ordinance which places this power in the hands of the public procurator. Could anything be more ridiculous than an attempt to muzzle the Press in this way? Why not fine or imprison people for speaking about the assassination?

The Kaiserin Elisabeth, Austrian cruiser, arrived yesterday from Pola.

H.M.S. Monmouth will give a concert at the Seamen's Institute shortly. October 16th has been fixed provisionally as the date.

The Gula Kalumpung Rubber Estates Ltd., announces an interim dividend of 1/- per share, less tax, to be paid on the 15th October.

INTERNATIONAL BASEBALL FIASCO IN JAPAN

WASHINGTON TEAM'S DISSATISFACTION AT THE UNFOLDING

After playing one inning, the baseball game between Keio and Washington came to an abrupt ending before the close of the second inning, the Washington team leaving the grounds in a dignified protest against the decision of the Umpire. The spectators, numbering fully four thousand, were loud in their denunciations of the management of the Japanese ball-player, Sugase, especially being hooted and jeered at by the Japanese spectators.

The Japan Gazette, after describing the play, says: "The warnings by the Press in regard to the umpiring of the game have been unheeded. It is a most regrettable incident, but according to baseball ethics, the Washington team could not take any other action than they did."

CHINESE FREEMASONS.

The persecution of the Chinese Freemasons in Kirin Province by the Chinese authorities is becoming more relentless daily. In Shuangyang Prefecture, a prefect himself led a party of troops to police in a raid on a Masonic temple. They destroyed the temple together with the idol contained therein. The persecution has had a reactionary effect on the believers and has made them quite willing to die as martyrs to their creed. The number in both Kirin and Heilungking Provinces has already reached 1000. The Manchuria Daily News states that their movements are being closely watched by the authorities, as there is suspicion of their being in communication with Manchurian Loyalists.

THE WOOSUNG WIRELESS STATION.

For a very long time a wireless telegraph station for Woosung has been talked about, but for a multitude of reasons it has failed to materialize. In the first place there was difficulty over the land, and in order to save expense it was actually decided a few months ago to drop the Woosung scheme and erect the station close to the Kiangnan Arsenal, where the Government already had available land.

It will be learnt with satisfaction, says the Lat Pau, that last week the realization of the scheme was brought a good step nearer. Apparently, in turn, the proposal to have the station near the Arsenal has been discarded, and once more the Woosung site has been fixed upon. On Thursday an agreement with the temporary owners of the necessary land there was signed, and as soon as arrangements for the construction work are made, it will be possible to proceed with the station. The land is understood to be in close proximity to the two colleges near the Forts Station.

A PHILIPPINE TARIFF QUESTION.

A cable received last Friday by the Acting Governor-General of the Philippines from Washington announced that the Conference Committee of the Senate and the House of Representatives have agreed to the provisions in the Tariff Bill affecting the Philippines. These provisions allow twenty per cent. of foreign material to be used in all cases of manufacture without affecting the free entry of the product into the United States.

No limit is to be placed on the amount of manufactured tobacco and upon sugar exported from the Philippines into the United States.

THE HOME RULE CONTROVERSY.

"THE ARRAN CABINET."

LONDON, September 30th.

The gathering of Mr. Asquith, Mr. George, Mr. Winston Churchill, and Mr. Runciman, at Brodick Castle, the mansion of the Chief Whip in Scotland, has become today an imposing Cabinet meeting, with the arrival of Colonel Seely, and Sir Rufus Isaacs. In Liberal quarters it is said that there is no special Irish significance attached to the meeting, but the Conservatives affirm that it is beyond the bounds of reason to suggest that the Irish problem will not be deliberated upon.

LATER.

What the newspapers call "The Arran Cabinet" is dispersing. Mr. Asquith, Colonel Seely, and Mr. Churchill are boarding the "Enchantress" for a cruise to Cromarty, from where Mr. Asquith will proceed to Balmoral.

THE ULSTER DEMONSTRATION.

A general order issued from the Ulster Volunteers' Headquarters contains a message from Sir Edward Carson in which he records his grateful appreciation and admiration of the splendid turnout, and General Richardson, as General Commanding, pays a tribute to the soldierly bearing and discipline of the Volunteers.

Baron Willoughby de Broke at Liverpool appealed for volunteers to enrol to assist Ulster.

POSSIBLE SOLUTION OF THE IRISH PROBLEM.

Sir Edward Carson, in an interview, said that if Mr. John Redmond does not appreciate the reality of Ulster's resistance, then the position is indeed hopeless. It is extremely significant that Mr. Redmond does not refer to the possibility of the exclusion of Ulster from the provisions of the Home Rule Bill. This may yet prove the solution of the Irish problem.

Mr. Alexander Ure, speaking at Birkenhead, said he hoped before the end of the year that Home Rule would be granted by consent.

Another journal says that Greece and Servia are quite powerless before the united Turco-Bulgarian armies. Only Roumania needs to be considered. The Turco-Bulgarian combination is quite equal to its task.

CHINA'S REPARATION FOR THE NANKING AFFAIR.

LONDON, September 30th.

The Times, in an article on China's reparation, says that considering General Chang Hsun's limited control over his ill-disciplined followers, his acts of reparation probably represent all he could do. His subsequent visits to the foreign Consulates was a face-saving manoeuvre which a wise Government will ignore.

The Times accepts in the spirit in which they were offered Japan's assurances that she does not desire to make capital out of China's misfortunes, and readily believes that the Government at Tokyo will perceive the wisdom of not placing excessive pressure on China at so critical a moment. It further points out that subordinate Japanese officials in China did not always act with due discretion during the Rebellion, and hopes that Yuan Shih-kai, who has revealed his capacity for holding his position, will remain as President, as his downfall would mean the downfall of the Government, the intervention of more than one Power, and endless international quarrels. The writer suggests that in order to allay alarms caused by the movements of the Japanese warships and troops, Japan should once more make it clear that she does not intend to depart from her hitherto strictly passive attitude.

MILITARY SERVICE IN FRANCE.

LONDON, September 30th.

The French premier, M. Barthou, speaking at Pau, expressed his pride in the passing of the Three Years' Service Bill which, he said, would keep France prepared for outside eventualities. France would not trouble the peace of the world.

EX-KING MANOEL AND HIS CONSORT.

LONDON, September 30th.

King Manoel visited the opera at Munich last night with members of the Bavarian Royal family.

Persistent rumours are circulating in Germany concerning King Manoel's consort, who fell ill on the 25th inst. does not return to Richmond with husband, but will remain at Sigmaringen for the winter with her parents, still in the hospital. The complete new described as slight and is not ill. That there is an affectionate internal organs no confirmation is obtainable.

LOCAL SPORT.

D.C.L.I. REGIMENTAL SWIMMING.

The 2nd Batt. Duke of Cornwall's Regiment held their first aquatic meeting in Hongkong at the Admiralty Camber, Kowloon, yesterday afternoon. The event was favoured with brilliant weather, a 1 was an unqualified success. The entries in practically the whole of the events were very numerous, and the races were keenly contested.

The results were as follow:—
Novices' Quarter-mile: 1, Private Smith; 2, Private Walls; 3, Private Clarke; 4, Davis.

Running dive: 1, Corpl. Baldwin; 2, Private Farmer; 3, Private Olley; 4, Private Cusell.

220 Yards Junior N.C.O.s: 1, Lance-Corpl. Passmore; 2, Corpl. Baldwin; 3, Corpl. Withers.

100 yards: 1, Private Farmer; 2, Private Smith; 3, Private Cusell; 4, Private Morcy; 5, Private Walls.

One-mile: 1, Private Cusell; 2, Private Farmer; 3, Corpl. Baldwin; 4, Private Shale; 5, Private Olley. This event, expected to be one of the best on the card, was very disappointing, and ended in a rather hollow victory for Cusell, who at no time appeared to be extended. His nearest rival, Farmer, took matters too lightly, and never looked like overhauling the winner.

100 yards boys race (open to all boys attending the Garrison School, under 14 years): 1, Johnson; 2, George Jacks; 3, Church.

220 yards (open to all ranks of the Navy serving in destroyers or torpedo boats): 1, Stoker Bygrave, H.M.S. Taku; 2, Frost, T.B. 935; 3, Leading Stoker Bishop, H.M.S. Taku.

100 yards in clothes. In this event the competitors had to swim in Regimental shirt, khaki or canvas trousers, boots, socks, and regulation boots: 1, Private Farmer; 2, Private Cusell; 3, Private Moley; 4, Private Bridgwater.

Novices' 100 yards: 1, Private Smith; 2, Private Walls; 3, Lance-Corpl. Newcombe; 4, Private Read.

Quarter-mile for enlisted boys: 1, Blackwell; 2, Burt; 3, Hobson.

220 yards (Sergeants): 1, Sergt. Bowen; 2, Sergt. Smith; 3, Sergt. Lunn.

Quarter-mile (open to all ranks of the Navy, Army, Volunteers, and European Police): 1, Bacon, 37th Company R.G.A.; 2, Private Cusell; 3, Sapper Wright, R.E.; 4, Private Farmer; 5, Gunner Coleman, 83rd Company R.G.A.

THE PRESIDENT AS A HUMORIST

President Harding, for the honour he conferred on us, but we wish to say that our success has in a great measure been due to the sagacious counsels of the President and the General Staff and the invaluable assistance of the N. Y. How-ever, we have accomplished two things. Firstly, the soldiers have proved their power to endure all manner of hardships and have acquired some experience in this campaign. In the future, we hope to make our army more efficient. Secondly, all obstacles to the administration have been removed, and we hope that the Government can now proceed with the building up of the country without encountering any untoward interruption. — Peking Daily News.

THE PIRATE'S SECRET

There was another similar case in Peru. About 1699 a Spaniard, named José Salcedo, fell in love with an Indian girl. He proceeded to do a thing almost unheard of in those times: he married her. One of gratitude, her mother revealed to him a vein of silver of unexampled richness. He worked it, and drew from it considerable wealth—too much for his happiness, for his opulence excited the cupidity of the viceroy, Count Lemos, who had him charged with high treason, the penalty for which was death and the confiscation of all worldly goods. "It was in vain that Salcedo demanded permission to appeal to Madrid, and

THE STAMP ALBUM.

SEVENTEEN CENTURIES OF JAPAN'S MAIL SYSTEM.

BY DOUGLAS B. ARMSTRONG.
(Editor of the "Stamp Collectors' Annual.")

The postage stamps of Britain's eastern ally, Japan, while possessed of a high degree of philatelic interest for the specialist, are of too complex a character to become really popular with the rank and file of collectors. Consequently, the early issues in particular are usually but poorly represented in the average stamp album.

Chief interest in the earlier issues lies in the opportunities they provide for plotting, but for the general collector there is also considerable attraction in the study of the symbolism expressed in the designs of the Japanese postage stamps, and to this end every collector should endeavour to obtain a representative display of the various types.

It was in March, 1871, that the Japanese postal service was organised on modern lines, and the first issue of postage stamps was made. A postal system of sorts had been established so long ago as the reign of the Empress Jingo (302 A.D.), which was brought to perfection in 646 A.D., but owing to internal disturbances in the country was practically suspended at the end of the sixteenth century.

JAPAN'S POST.

When Japan was first opened to foreign trade in 1853, the postal service was entirely in the hands of private concerns, but with the establishment of the Imperial Government, the post underwent a thorough reorganisation based on Western ideas, and was recognised as an official monopoly. Early in 1871 the new postal service was promulgated, and, in the March of that year was put into force by way of a trial between Tokyo, Osaka, and Kyoto.

The method of transmission in this case was by means of couriers, who were despatched every day, and thus correspondence was extended to all towns and villages lying along the route which connected the three cities. Exactly one year later, in March 1872, a further advancement was inaugurated in connection with the postal service, with the result that Tokyo began a three-times-a-day delivery service both for letters and newspapers.

So great was the effect of this innovation that a five-times-a-day service was established between Tokyo and Yokohama almost immediately, and further in 1873 a uniform postal fee was introduced quite irrespective of distance, except in the case of city mails and suburban extra fee mails.

The post exchange contract was concluded with the United States of America in the same year, while in 1877 Japan joined the International Postal Union. As an immediate effect of Japan's postal progress, the British post offices at Yokohama, Kobe, and Nagasaki were withdrawn in December 1878, while a year thence the French post office at Yokohama was also suppressed, and thus postal administrative autonomy was first secured by Japan.

The designs on the earlier stamps of Japan form an interesting study, and their significance requires some sort of elucidation to the western collector.

THE FIRST ISSUE.

The first issue of 1871 consisted of the well-known small square stamps bearing the Chinese numerical values enclosed by two rampant dragons in the centre. The ideas and superstitions of the dragon were primarily entirely Chinese, but when the Japanese embraced Chinese civilisation they naturally also adopted the mythology of the Chinese.

The second series of stamps saw a radical change in design, the dragon disappearing in favour of the chrysanthemum. This flower is emblematic of the emperor, and was the official badge of the Japanese people. The chrysanthemum plays an important part among them, and at the proper season it is worked into all conceivable shapes—men and gods, castles, bridges, boats, etc. From the subsequent stamps it will be seen that the cherry blossom has been added to the design, and its representation is said to be the "spirit of Japan."

One ever associates the eastern island kingdom with flowers and gardens of delicate hues, and so it happens that the time of the cherry blossom is devoted to merry-making and feasts. The issue of 1875 introduced the stamp collector to a series of birds. The 12 sen depicts a crane or wild goose, a bird which the Japanese associate with autumn or winter.

On the 15 sen we are introduced to the sekiro, a species of wagtail which, according to Japanese mythology, played more or less the same part as the serpent in the Garden of Eden. The bird shown on the 45 sen is the taka or falcon, as the picture clearly shows. The falcon was the "imperial bird" of the Emperor of Korea, and its association with the Court as a means of furnishing sport dates back to the Middle Ages.

The national flag of the Japanese nation depicts the rising sun, and on the third design, including stamps from 15 to 50 sen, this well-known ball of red is depicted. One might well have expected so famous an emblem to have appeared in the postal designs at an earlier date.

LONDON STAMPS FOR CHINA.

I am informed by Messrs. Whitfield King & Co. that my supposition that the new Chinese postage stamps were the work of the Peking Bureau of Engraving and Printing was incorrect, and that the stamps were actually produced by the well-known London firm of Waterlow & Sons, who have been responsible for all the regular issues of China since 1898.

Specimen copies have been circulated of the new 35 stamp of Antigua, bearing the head of King George, adapted to the frame design of the Edwardian issue. Four additional of the Georgian postage stamp series of the Somaliland Protectorate, viz., 21, 3, 8, and 12 annas, are also announced.

The new issue for the Gold Coast, which is to appear at the end of the present year, comprises five values, eleven being in the general Postage and Revenue key-plate type, and the 1d. having the King's head adapted to the distinctive frame design originated in 1909—Daily Mail.

Do You Feel Fit in the Mornings?

In the morning when the white man awakes in countries near the equator, he often feels more tired than when he went to bed. The food he eats, the air he breathes, and the steamy heat of the tropics provide a general stagnation of the system. The juices of the body are charged with impurities which the organs of excretion—the skin, kidneys, etc.—cannot expel; his liver is sluggish, his blood overheated. He is at the mercy of the malignant diseases surrounding him.

Krüschén Salts

A half-teaspoonful of Krüschén Salts, taken in a tumbler of hot water before the morning cup of tea is the unfailing remedy. They cleanse the body of impurities—gently, surely, and painlessly—while possessing wonderful tonic properties giving new life and vitality to the countless millions of cells of which the human body is composed. Flesh, blood, bone, brain and nerve, all are made up of cells and every cell requires one or more of the constituents of Krüschén Salts for its healthy life. That is why doctors at home and abroad recommend this famous remedy. Krüschén Salts correct any debasement of the organs and fortify the body against Dysentery, Enteritis, Malaria, Pityriasis, Heat and Diphtheria. As a remedy for constipation—the most dreaded of evils to the white man in the tropics, they are infallible.

Begin to-morrow morning with Krüschén Salts

and, in a day or so, you will feel as physically fit and mentally bright as you would on a spring day at home.

Krüschén Salts are obtainable from all good chemists and druggists in China.
